WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

2 Head coach DJ Durkin is back for his second season at Maryland after improving the Terrapins record by three victories and leading the team to an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl in his inaugural year at the helm. Durkin's Terps are set to play one of the nation's toughest schedules, with seven of the team's nine Big Ten opponents appearing in the postseason in 2016.

3 The Maryland offensive line returns three starters: Damian Prince, Brendan Moore and Terrance Davis. Under then-first year offensive coordinator, Walt Bell, the trio of linemen helped the Maryland rushing attack to its first 2,500 rushing yard season since 2002.

9 The Maryland defense returns nine starters from 2016, including senior linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr., who is a two-time All-Big Ten honoree and totaled 110 tackles and 9.0 tackles for loss last season. Carter has started a team-high 25 consecutive games and is looking to become the fifth player since 1969 to lead Maryland in tackles three consecutive seasons - others on the list include E.J. Henderson and D'Qwell Jackson.

9 Wideout D.J. Moore has posted nine touchdown receptions through his first two seasons - a mark that ranks better than current NFL wideouts and former Terrapins Torrey Smith (7) and Darrius Heyward-Bey (8). Stefon Diggs also had nine touchdown receptions in his first two seasons. Moore averaged 15.3 yards-per-play as a sophomore in 2016 - the highest average among all players in the Big Ten Conference.

20 Head coach DJ Durkin's 2017 recruiting class was sensational, ranking in the top-20 across all major recruiting platforms. The class included 17 players from the DMV region, in addition to 11 four-star signees and five members of the ESPN300.

80 Maryland returns nearly 80 percent of its total rushing yards from 2016, including 1,637 combined rushing yards from Ty Johnson and Lorenzo Harrison. Johnson became the ninth player in Maryland history to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark, while setting a program single-season record for yards/carry (9.1).

DJ DURKIN

Head Coach

Bowling Green '01 • Second Year at Maryland

The Maryland football program made great strides in 2016, its first year under the guidance of Head Coach DJ Durkin. The Terps doubled their win total from the prior season and garnered bowl eligibility in Durkin's first year in College Park.

Regarded as one of the brightest young coaching minds in college football, Durkin was named the 36th head football coach in Maryland history on December 2, 2015. He quickly changed the culture and brought instant energy to the program.

Durkin improved the results on the field as well. The Terps started the 2016 season 4-0 and won five of their first seven games, including a victory over Michigan State. After falling in three straight games to nationally-ranked teams, including a pair of matchups against Top 5 squads, Maryland defeated Rutgers, 31-13, in its season finale to garner bowl eligibility.

Durkin guided Maryland to its 27th bowl game all-time when the Terps faced off against Boston College in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl, which was played at Ford Field in Detroit.

Durkin also showed his recruiting prowess by signing a consensus Top 20 class in 2017, which was his first full recruiting cycle. The class, which included 11 4-star signees and five members of the ESPN300, ranked among the best in program history. Durkin was able to land nine of the Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and three of the top nine players from Washington, D.C.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Durkin served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, leading a nationally-renowned defensive unit that ranked fourth in the country. Under Durkin, the Wolverines limited opponents to 17.2 points per game in 2015, in addition to shutting out three consecutive opponents – the longest such streak at Michigan in 35 years.

Durkin has also been an outstanding recruiter in his time as an assistant. At Florida, Durkin helped land four straight top-11 recruiting classes and was named Rivals.com's 2012 Recruiter of the Year as a result. In total, Durkin contributed to the impressive recruitment of nine five-star prospects on the defensive side of the ball during that stretch.

Durkin's immediate impact in Ann Arbor was also displayed in player development. Michigan had nine defensive All-Big Ten honorees, including a pair of first team defensive backs: Jourdan Lewis and Jabril Peppers. In addition, three Wolverines (Ryan Glasgow, Lewis and Peppers,) were named semifinalists for national defensive awards in 2015.

As the defensive coordinator at Florida from 2013-14, Durkin led the Gators to consecutive top-15 rankings in total defense with the 15th-best mark in the country in 2014 (329.0 ypg) and the eighth-best (314.2 ypg) in 2013.

Florida's 2014 team finished the year ranked in the top-10 in the nation in yards allowed per play (4.45), yards allowed per rush attempt (3.16) and yards allowed per pass attempt (5.9).

The group was highlighted by All-SEC selections Dante Fowler Jr., Vernon Hargreaves and Antonio Morrison. Fowler was subsequently selected third overall in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. His selection continued a stretch in which Gator defensive players were selected in the first round of three consecutive drafts.

In Durkin's first season as defensive coordinator, Florida finished first in the SEC and seventh in the country in pass defense (171.8 yards per game), sixth in first downs allowed (16.1 per game) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1 points per game), while allowing only 27 touchdowns, the sixth fewest in the nation in 2013.

Durkin's coaching paid dividends at the next level when defensive tackle Dominique Easley was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

From 2010-2012, Durkin served as special team coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida and coached under current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn. Once again, Durkin was a key contributor of a staff that helped produce an NFL first round pick when defensive tackle Shariff Floyd was taken in the first round of the 2012 Draft.

As linebackers coach, Durkin tutored Jon Bostic, who finished his career as a second-team All-SEC selection and was drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears in 2013.

Durkin's coaching on special teams helped produce punter Chas Henry, the winner of the Ray Guy Award in 2011, and kicker Caleb Sturgis, a two-time finalist for the Lou Groza Award and NFL player.

Under Durkin's tutelage, Stanford's defensive ends helped the Cardinal rank 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2007 and 2009.

At Stanford, Durkin helped the Cardinal bring in their highest ranked recruiting class in eight years in 2009.

As a graduate assistant at Notre Dame from 2003-04, Durkin worked primarily with defensive ends and helped develop Notre Dame all-time sack leader, All-Pro NFL defensive end and 2x Super Bowl champion Justin Tuck.

As a player, Durkin starred at Bowling Green as a starter at defensive end and outside linebacker from 1997-2000. He led the team in sacks in 1998 and served as a team captain for two seasons. Durkin was honored with numerous team awards including the Ken Schoeni Award for character and toughness, the Carlos Jackson Award personifying the values of a student-athlete and the Leadership Award.

Durkin played under Gary Blackney at Bowling Green. Blackney was Maryland's defensive coordinator from 2001-05.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Bowling Green in 2001 and his master's degree in educational administration and supervision in 2004.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Durkin and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Abigail, and one son, Luke.

ANDY BUH

Defensive Coordinator

Nevada '96 • Second Year at Maryland

Andy Buh, who joined DJ Durkin's staff in the spring of 2016, is now in his second season as defensive coordinator for the Terps.

Buh, who previously served as the defensive coordinator at Stanford, Nevada and Cal, came to Maryland from the University of Kentucky, where he served as the outside linebackers coach in 2015 and was promoted to also serve as special teams coordinator. Durkin and Buh were on the same staff at Stanford from 2007-09.

Buh (pronounced same as "boo") has 19 years of coaching experience and has helped engineer major turnarounds at Stanford and Nevada. His teams made four consecutive bowl appearances from 2009-12 and he's sent numerous players to the National Football League.

Buh helped guide a Maryland defense that ended 2016 tied for third in the Big Ten with 37 sacks. The Terps finished strong, compiling 15 sacks during the final three games of the season.

Buh's defense allowed just one 300-yard passer during the 2016 season. Maryland gave up just 212.3 passing yards/game in Buh's first season, just the second time in the last nine seasons a Terps team achieved the feat.

While only at Kentucky for one season, Buh made an immediate impact. The Wildcats allowed just 198.1 yards per game through the air, ranking fifth in the SEC and Top 30 nationally in passing defense. Kentucky was also stingy in the red zone during Buh's tenure, ranking fourth in the conference and 14th nationally by allowing opponents to score just 75 percent of the time. The Wildcats also forced nine fumbles in 2015, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Buh also coached at the University of California, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2013. The Golden Bear defense was ravaged by injuries that year as 16 players from the team's preseason two-deep were sidelined for a total of 109 games. A highlight was the performance of defensive lineman Deandre Coleman, who earned third-team All-Pac-12 honors and currently plays for the Miami Dolphins.

Buh was the linebackers coach at Wisconsin in 2012 and the UW defense ranked in the nation's top 25 in several statistical categories. The Badgers were 15th in the nation in total defense (322.6 yards per game), 17th in scoring defense (19.1 points per game), 22nd in pass efficiency defense and 24th in rushing defense. Wisconsin was even better during the regular-season Big Ten contests, allowing just 18.3 points per game to rank second in the league.

Individually, Wisconsin linebacker Mike Taylor had 123 tackles and ranked 25th in the nation in total stops. Linebacker Chris Borland received All-Big Ten honors. Borland played for the San Francisco 49ers and Taylor was on the reserve squad for the Seattle Seahawks.

Prior to Wisconsin, Buh was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada in 2010-11. In his first season, Buh helped lead Nevada to arguably the greatest season in school history with a 13-1 record, tying for the Western Athletic Conference championship and defeating Boston College in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Nevada ranked 31st in the nation in scoring defense (21.4 ppg) and 18th nationally in rushing defense at 120.3 yards per game. The Wolf Pack rated 24th nationally in sacks with 35 QB takedowns, 2.5 per game. Defensive end Dontay Moch had 22 tackles for loss, leading the WAC and rating 10th nationally with 1.57 TFL per game. Moch was a third-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals and currently plays for the Atlanta Falcons.

The Wolf Pack went 7-6 in his first season and played No. 22-ranked Southern Mississippi in the Hawaii Bowl, limiting the nation's No. 15 scoring offense to 13 points and 125 yards below its season average. Nevada was led by first-team All-America defensive tackle Brett Roy, who had 18.5 tackles for loss, pacing the WAC and ranking 12th nationally with 1.4 TFL per game. Included were 10 quarterback sacks, with Roy ranking second in the WAC and 13th in the country at 0.77 per game.

Buh's success came after inheriting a unit that had ranked 96th and 91st nationally in total defense in 2008 and '09, respectively, the two seasons before his arrival. In his two years at Nevada, the Wolf Pack was 54th in the country in total defense in 2010 and 52nd in 2011.

Buh also was part of a major turnaround during his term at Stanford. He was linebackers coach in 2007 for a team that had gone 1-11 the year before. The 2007 squad improved to four wins, including one of the greatest upsets in college football history -- as a 41-point underdog, the Cardinal scored a 24-23 road victory at Southern California. Buh was promoted by then-head coach Jim Harbaugh to co-defensive coordinator for his final two seasons.

In his first year as co-defensive coordinator, Stanford ranked 11th nationally in quarterback sacks and improved to five wins. Three Cardinal defenders were named All-Pac-12. In 2009, Stanford played in the Sun Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 2001, and had four players receive All-Pac-12 honors, including NFL All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman.

A native of Escondido, Calif., Buh played linebacker for two seasons at Palomar College, where he helped the team to a share of the 1991 Junior College Grid-Wire national championship as a freshman. He was a junior-college All-American as a sophomore.

Buh went on to play at Nevada in 1993-94 and was a part of a Big West championship team as a senior. He graduated with a degree in physical education and began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Orange Glen HS, in 1996.

Buh entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Nevada as a graduate assistant in 1997-98 and coached defensive backs and special teams in '99. He was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2000-01.

Buh coached linebackers at San Diego State at 2002-05. During his time with the Aztecs, Buh coached four players who went on to the NFL, including Kirk Morrison, a first-team All-American, two-time Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year and three-time All-MWC selection. Morrison went on to play eight years in the NFL. Buh coached one season at Fresno State before going to Stanford.

Buh's wife, Kelly, is a native of New Albany, Ind. They have two sons, Luke and Logan.

WALT BELL

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Middle Tennessee State '05 • Second Year at Maryland

Walt Bell, one of the most dynamic young offensive minds in college football, is now in his second season as Maryland's Offensive Coordinator.

Bell had an instant impact on the Terps offense as Maryland posted 173 points through its first four games in 2016 - a program record. Maryland saw improvements in nearly every offensive category in Bell's first year. The Terps averaged more points and yards per play, while also scoring more touchdowns, recording more first downs and cutting turnovers drastically from 2015.

Maryland's rushing offense perhaps saw the biggest boost under Bell's tutelage. The Terps rushing offense totaled 2,594 yards in 2016, marking just the seventh time in the history of the program (and first since 2003) the team eclipsed 2,500 yards on the ground. The team also posted 26 rushing touchdowns – the most since 2007.

Bell joined the Maryland staff after serving as offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State from 2014-15. The Red Wolves ranked 12th nationally in scoring offense, averaging 40.0 points per game in 2015. In his 26 games overseeing the Arkansas State offense, the Red Wolves posted over 300 yards 24 times, over 400 yards 18 times and over 500 yards 11 times.

Bell helped Arkansas State placed eight offensive players on the 2015 All-Sun Belt Conference Team. Junior offensive linemen Jemar Clark and Colton Jackson, and senior wide receiver J.D. McKissic were first team all-conference selections.

In Bell's first year at Arkansas State, the Red Wolves broke five school records on the offensive side of the ball. The high-tempo offense posted 6,194 yards of total offense, averaged 476.5 yards per game, ran 1,024 plays, scored 477 points and totaled 65 touchdowns. Bell's offensive unit ranked among the top 45 teams in the nation in seven statistical categories, including scoring offense (No. 18), total offense (No. 20), rushing offense (No. 25), first downs (No. 30), completion percentage (No. 36), team passing efficiency (No. 38) and passing offense (No. 39).

Bell, who has been a part of 11 bowl games as either a coach or player, came to Arkansas State after spending the previous two seasons as North Carolina's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. Bell was part of an offensive staff that helped North Carolina break over 35 school records.

Bell helped North Carolina average 432.4 total yards per game during the 2013 season. Coaching the tight ends position, he was part of a passing game that ranked 28th in the nation with an average of 277.4 yards per game. Bell also helped lead UNC to the 2012 Atlantic Coast Conference Coastal Division title, the same year the Tar Heels ranked 14th nationally with 485.6 yards per game.

Under Bell's tutelage, tight end Eric Ebron was a two-time All-ACC pick and named First Team All-America in 2013. Ebron finished the 2013 season with 973 receiving yards, the most by any tight end in ACC history. Bell's initial season at UNC saw Ebron triple his output over the previous year, hauling in 40 receptions for 625 yards.

Bell also helped the Tar Heels build a pair of strong recruiting classes. The 2012 class ranked among the top five in the ACC despite a lack of available scholarships, and the 2013 class was among the top four in the conference.

Bell went to North Carolina after coaching wide receivers at Southern Miss. He was part of a Southern Miss offensive staff that helped the Golden Eagles establish school records for total offense with 6,459 yards in 2011. USM ranked 17th in the nation in total offense and 14th in scoring offense as the Golden Eagles had their best season in school history.

Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. Bell's wide receivers were a big reason for USM's success. The top four receivers on the team all had more than 30 receptions, led by Kelvin Bolden who posted a team-high 58 catches for 671 yards and seven touchdowns. Ryan Ballentine led the team in yards (742) and touchdowns (8) on 49 catches.

Before becoming a full-time assistant at USM, Bell spent one season as the team's offensive graduate assistant in 2010 when the team played Louisville in the Beef 'O' Brady Bowl. With his input, the Golden Eagles set new offensive records for production that year, including a then-school record 5,894 yards and 453.38 yards per game.

Prior to Southern Miss, Bell spent a season as a quality control coach at Oklahoma State. His lone season at OSU saw the Cowboys post a 9-4 record and play in the Cotton Bowl. Before Oklahoma State, Bell worked two years as a graduate assistant at Memphis following his playing days at Middle Tennessee. The Tigers played in back-to-back bowl games during Bell's tenure at the school, including the 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl and the 2007 New Orleans Bowl.

Bell, a Dickson, Tennessee native, earned both his bachelor's degree (criminal justice administration, 2005) and master's degree (sports management, 2006) from Middle Tennessee, where he was a four-year letterman at wide receiver for the Blue Raiders. Bell also worked at Louisiana-Lafayette for one spring following his final season at MTSU.

CHRIS BEATTY

Associate Head Coach/Wide Receivers

East Tennessee State '95 • Second Year at Maryland

Chris Beatty is in his second year on the Maryland staff, and was promoted to Associate Head Coach following the 2016 season. He helped Maryland's offense make significant strides in his first year as coach of the wide receivers, while also proving to be an outstanding recruiter.

Under Beatty's guidance, D.J. Moore posted six TD grabs in 2016, the most for a Terp wide receiver since Stefon Diggs also had six in 2012.

Beatty also helped Head Coach DJ Durkin and Maryland sign a consensus Top 20 recruiting class in 2017. The class, which included 11 4-star signees and five members of the ESPN300, ranked among the best in program history. Beatty was recognized by 247Sports as one of the Top 15 recruiters in the Big Ten.

Prior to Maryland, Beatty has prior FBS stops at Virginia (2015), Wisconsin (2013-14), Illinois (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), West Virginia (2008-10) and Northern Illinois (2007).

At Virginia, Beatty oversaw the rise of junior running back Taquan Mizzell, who broke the ACC record for receiving yards by a running back in a season with 721 on his way to third-team All-ACC honors.

Beatty helped guide Wisconsin to an 11-3 record in 2014, including a 34-31 overtime win over Auburn in the Outback Bowl. In 2013, Beatty helped senior wide receiver Jared Abbrederis set the school record for receptions in a season (78) and become just the third receiver in school history to compile over 1,000 receiving yards in a season with 1,081. Abbrederis, who went on to be selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2014 NFL Draft, was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection.

While at Vanderbilt, Beatty helped the Commodores win the 2011 Liberty Bowl, and prior to that, he was part of three straight bowl appearances during his time at West Virginia. His stint with the Mountaineers also included the 2010 Big East championship.

While at West Virginia, Beatty coached running back Noel Devine, who rushed for more than 3,600 yards under Beatty's direction and earned a pair of All-BIG EAST honors.

Eighteen of Beatty's former players have gone on to the NFL, and he also mentored 14 all-conference performers.

A 1995 graduate of East Tennessee State, where he was a standout wide receiver, Beatty played professionally in the Canadian Football League before becoming a successful high school coach in Virginia. A native of Centreville, Va., Beatty led Landstown High School to a 40-2 record from 2003-05 and won a state championship with a team that featured current Buffalo Bills wide receiver Percy Harvin.

Beatty's first coaching job was at Hampton University, where he served as offensive coordinator, while also coaching the quarterback and wide receiver units in 2006. Beatty directed Hampton to the 2006 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs. The Pirates ranked No. 7 in the FCS with an average of 34.7 points per game, with three of Beatty's wide receivers -- Dereck Faulkner, Onrea Jones and Marquay McDaniel -- eventually earning playing time in the NFL.

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

Auburn '99 • 1st Year at Maryland

Jimmy Brumbaugh joined the Maryland coaching staff as co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2017. Brumbaugh, who had spent the prior four seasons at the University of Kentucky, has established himself as one of the top defensive line coaches in the country. He has also served as an assistant coach at LSU, Louisiana Tech and Syracuse.

While serving as defensive line coach at Kentucky (2013-16), Brumbaugh helped develop a pair of 2015 NFL draft picks in Bud Dupree, a first round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers, as well as Za'Darius Smith, who was chosen in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens. A total of four defensive linemen earned All-SEC honors during Brumbaugh's tenure at Kentucky.

Prior to UK, Brumbaugh's most recent major-college stop was a two-year stint at Syracuse, where he coached defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. The Orange defense showed drastic improvements under Brumbaugh in 2010, moving from 81st nationally in scoring defense to 17th, and 37th in total defense to seventh. Under Brumbaugh's tutelage, defensive end Chandler Jones garnered All-Big East recognition twice and was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009. He took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

In addition to coaching, the native of Keystone Heights, Fla., also has experience in strength and conditioning. Brumbaugh served two seasons (2006-07) as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU, helping the Tigers capture the 2007 national championship. While with LSU, Brumbaugh helped produce 12 NFL draft selections, including five first-round picks.

Brumbaugh got his first coaching role at Jacksonville State as a student assistant as the Gamecocks won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship and a 9-2 record. He spent the 2005 season at Tennessee-Chattanooga as the defensive line coach.

In 2012, Brumbaugh was at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and the strength and conditioning coordinator. Brumbaugh helped lead the Lions to a top-10 national ranking with an 8-2 record and the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line combined for 224 tackles, including 44.5 tackles for loss, 21.5 sacks and seven fumbles forced. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 74.5 rushing yards per game and only 15.3 points per game.

In just one season, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including end Za'Darius Smith at Kentucky. Smith was rated as the nation's No. 1 junior college strong side defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

During his playing days at Auburn, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, gathering 291 tackles and 15 sacks as a nose tackle and defensive tackle. Brumbaugh was named Freshman All-SEC in 1995, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and first-team All-SEC in 1997. He helped the Tigers earn the 1997 SEC Western Division championship and played in three bowl games, winning two.

After his collegiate career ended, Brumbaugh signed a free-agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000. He also played in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

Brumbaugh graduated from Auburn with a degree in health and human performance. He is married to the former Kelly Jones. They have two sons, Legend and Nash.

PETE LEMBO

Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord./Tight Ends

Georgetown '92 • Second Year at Maryland

Pete Lembo is in his second year as Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator at Maryland. The veteran coach also oversees the tight ends.

Maryland's special teams unit excelled under Lembo's watch in 2016. The Terps didn't allow a blocked punt the entire season, while tying for seventh nationally by blocking two punts. Maryland also ended the year tied for 10th in the FBS with four total blocked kicks.

The Terps were stellar in kick off return defense, ranking as the second best unit in the Big Ten and 25th nationally. Maryland was also third in the Big Ten in punt return average (8.9 yards).

Prior to joining DJ Durkin's staff at Maryland, Lembo had spent the prior five seasons as Ball State's Head Coach. The Cardinals set more than 60 school records during Lembo's tenure as head coach, including single-season records for points (501), total offense (6,199 yards), passing yards (4,214), touchdown passes (35) and total touchdowns (64) in 2013.

Lembo has excelled coaching special teams, especially during his tenure at Ball State. The Cardinals ranked among the top three schools in the Mid-American Conference in a compilation of league special teams statistics in each of his five years, leading the league in 2012. Lembo coached five different players to all-conference honors on the special teams side of the ball. Placekicker Steve Schott was a Lou Groza semifinalist and punter Scott Kovanda was a Ray Guy finalist in 2012. Placekicker Scott Secor was named the MAC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2014.

Lembo was 112-65 during his 15 years serving as head coach at Ball State (2011-15), Lehigh (2001-05) and Elon (2006-10). He was 33-29 during his five year tenure at Ball State, posting a 23-17 record in the MAC.

Several players from Lembo's Ball State teams are enjoying successful careers in the National Football League including wide receiver Willie Snead (New Orleans Saints), defensive end Jon Newsome (Indianapolis Colts) and quarterback Keith Wenning (Cincinnati Bengals), among others. While at Ball State, Lembo also coached tight end Zane Fakes, a two-time first team All-MAC tight end. Fakes was also a two-time Academic All-MAC selection and a 2013 Campbell trophy semi-finalist.

Lembo was the first head coach in Ball State history to win at least 30 games in his first four seasons at the helm. He guided the Cardinals to a 10-3 overall record in 2013, including a second straight bowl appearance when Ball State played in the GoDaddy Bowl. It marked just the second time in 91 years of football at Ball State that the Cardinals played in back-to-back bowl games.

A 24-year coaching veteran, Lembo was one of 20 coaches in country named to the 2013 Paul Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award Watch List.

In 2012, Lembo led the Cardinals to a 9-4 overall record and a 6-2 MAC mark in his second season. He guided Ball State to the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg in only his second season at the helm.

Prior to Ball State, Lembo was one of the most successful coaches in Lehigh history, posting a 44-14 mark as head coach. He led Lehigh to the 2001 and 2004 Patriot League Championship and berths in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs. His .759 overall winning percentage and .778 league winning percentage at Lehigh are both the second highest in Patriot League history. He was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year and the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 when his squad finished 11-1 and ranked fifth in both NCAA I-AA polls.

Lembo also found success as Elon's Head Coach from 2006-10. He led the Phoenix to 35 victories in five years after taking over a program that tallied a 14-42 record in the five years prior to his arrival. Lembo's Elon teams broke 124 NCAA, Southern Conference and school records during his tenure and posted a 24-14 record in the Southern Conference. He was named the 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year and the Phoenix averaged more than 400 yards of offense per game during each of his final four seasons at the school.

Before taking over at Elon, Lembo served as an assistant coach at Lehigh from 1998-2000. He was also an assistant coach at Hampden-Sydney (1997), Dartmouth (1994-96) and Albany (1992-93).

A native of Staten Island, New York, Lembo is married with three children. He stared at Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island before becoming a four-year starter on the offensive line at Georgetown. He was named a team captain during the 1991 season and graduated from Georgetown in 1992. Lembo earned his Master's degree from Albany in 1994.

AAZAAR ABDUL-RAHIM

Defensive Backs

San Diego State '98 • Second Year at Maryland

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim enters his second season as Maryland's defensive backs coach in 2017. A former high school head coach with ties to the DMV area, Abdul-Rahim has made an instant impact on the recruiting trails for the Terps.

Abdul-Rahim helped head coach DJ Durkin and Maryland sign a consensus Top 20 class in 2017. The class, which included 11 4-star signees and five members of the ESPN300, ranked among the best in program history. Abdul-Rahim was critical in helping the Terps land nine of the Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and three of the top nine players from Washington, D.C. He was recognized by both Rivals.com and 247Sports as one of the Top 25 recruiters for the class of 2017.

Abdul-Rahim joined the Maryland staff in 2016 after a two-year stint at Alabama where he first served as a defensive analyst before being promoted to the assistant director of player personnel.

A Washington, D.C. native, Abdul-Rahim made his name as the head coach of Friendship Collegiate Academy. After founding the school's football program in 2004, he turned it into a national power, accumulating 62 wins and leading the team to a District of Columbia State Athletic Association championship in 2012. He helped over 100 players earn scholarships to play college football.

Abdul-Rahim also founded "Cover One", a defensive back training academy that has worked with dozens of NFL players.

Abdul-Rahim played two seasons at San Diego State (1997-1998) after a stint at Mesa Community College. After college, the Dunbar High School standout, played for the San Diego Riptide of the Arena Football League.

MATT BARNES

Linebackers

Salisbury '08 • Second Year at Maryland

Matt Barnes enters year two as Maryland's linebackers coach in 2017. During his first season, a pair of Terp linebackers garnered All-Big Ten recognition.

Under Barnes' tutelage, linebackers Jermaine Carter and Shane Cockerille excelled in 2016. Carter led the Terps and ranked third in the Big Ten with 110 tackles, while Cockerille finished just behind Carter, ending the year fourth in the Big Ten with 108 tackles. Both players were named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten.

Barnes has spent much of his coaching career alongside Maryland Head Coach DJ Durkin, joining him at both the University of Michigan and the University of Florida.

Barnes spent the 2015 season as the defensive analyst at Michigan under the then-defensive coordinator Durkin and head coach Jim Harbaugh. The Wolverine defense ranked first nationally in defensive pass efficiency, third in passing yards allowed, fourth in total defense and 11th in scoring defense. On game days, he served as the primary scouter in the box and contributed to sideline and halftime adjustments.

Prior to Michigan, Barnes served as a defensive and special teams graduate assistant for three years at Florida from 2012-14. He worked directly under the defensive and special teams coordinators, assisting a 2014 Gator defense that ranked 15th nationally in total defense and 10th in defensive pass efficiency.

Florida's special teams unit also achieved immense success during Barnes' tenure, ranking second nationally in kickoff coverage and third in punt returns in 2013. He directly assisted Durkin, who was named the footballscoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year in 2012.

Barnes spent the 2011 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College, where he helped coach all-american quarterback Adam Neugebauer to Division II Quarterback of the Year honors. Barnes' offense led the conference in total offense, passing offense, passing efficiency and first downs. He signed over 25 prospects throughout the east coast, served as the academic coordinator and was involved in all areas of program management.

Barnes began his coaching career in 2009 as the running backs coach at Delaware Valley College, before beginning his first stint at West Virginia Wesleyan in 2010 as running backs coach.

Barnes is a 2008 graduate of Salisbury University on Maryland's eastern shore, where he was elected as team captain by teammates and was a candidate for the Draddy Trophy Award.

TYLER BOWEN

Offensive Line

Maryland '10 • First Year at Maryland

Tyler Bowen joined the Maryland coaching staff in February 2017 after spending two extremely successful seasons at Fordham Univeristy, serving most recently as the offensive coordinator in 2016.

In 2016, Bowen's offense led the Patriot League and ranked fourth in the NCAA FCS in both total offense (498.2 yards per game) and scoring average (40.1 points per game). The Rams also led the league and ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in rushing offense (229.7 yards per game).

In Bowen's two seasons at Fordham, four offensive linemen garnered All-America and All-Patriot League honors. Bowen also coached All-American running back Chase Edmunds, who finished fourth in the voting for the 2016 Walter Payton Award.

In his first year at Fordam, Bowen helped the Rams offense lead the Patriot League and rank ninth in the NCAA FCS in scoring, averaging 36.8 points per game.

Bowen arrived at Fordham after spending the 2014 season as an offensive graduate assistant coach at Penn State University. He helped the Nittany Lions to a 7-6 mark in 2014 and a win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

Prior to Penn State, Bowen served as the tight ends coach at Towson University in 2013. That year, the Tigers advanced to the NCAA FCS championship game.

A native of Helena, Ga., Bowen played three years of football at the University of Maryland before becoming a student assistant coach for head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2010.

After he received his degree in 2010, he joined the Terps staff as a graduate assistant. During his two seasons as a G.A. at Maryland, he worked with the offensive linemen and the wide receivers.

ANTHONY TUCKER

Running Backs

Fresno State '99 • Second Year at Maryland

Anthony Tucker is now in his second season as Maryland's running backs coach. The Terps backfield broke numerous school records under Tucker's watch in 2016.

Maryland's rushing offense totaled 2,594 yards in 2016, marking just the seventh time in the history of the program (and first since 2003) the Terps eclipsed 2,500 yards on the ground. The team also posted 26 rushing touchdowns – the most since 2007.

Under Tucker's tutelage, running back Ty Johnson set the single-season Maryland record for yards per carry (100 attempts) with 9.13 in 2016. He broke a record that was set by Ed Modzelewski (7.38) in 1951. Johnson finished the year with 1,004 rushing yards, becoming just the ninth Terp and first since Da'Rel Scott (2008) to reach the 1,000-yard milestone. He also became just the eighth player in school history to post five 100-yard rushing performances in a single-season.

Backfield mate Lorenzo Harrison finished his rookie campaign with 633 yards on just 88 carries in nine appearances. His 7.2 yards per carry is the most ever for a Maryland freshman (min. 75 attempts). Harrison ended the year just 57 yards shy of breaking LaMont Jordan's freshman school rushing record. Harrison also became the first Maryland running back even to score rushing touchdowns in each of his first four games.

Tucker came to Maryland from Arkansas State, where he served as running backs coach from 2014-15 and wide receivers coach in 2013.

The Red Wolves were extremely successful during Tucker's tenure, claiming the Sun Belt Conference championship in 2013 and 2015, and earning trips to bowl games during all three seasons.

Under Tucker's tutelage in 2015, Arkansas State ranked 15th in the FBS in rushing offense, averaging 231.3 yards per game on the ground. The Red Wolves racked up 3,007 rushing yards on the season and rushed for 4.95 yards per carry. Arkansas State also set school records in both points scored (520) and touchdowns (69).

During his first season as the running backs coach in 2014, the Red Wolves set school records for total offense (6,194 yards), avg. yards/g (476.5) and total plays (1,024). Arkansas State ranked No. 18 in the nation in scoring offense, No. 25 in rushing offense and No. 30 in first downs.

Red Wolves running back Michael Gordon rushed for a combined 2,162 yards and 24 touchdowns during his two years under Tucker's guidance. He was named a second team All-Sun Belt Conference pick both years.

Tucker came to Arkansas State after spending the previous two seasons at Idaho State, where he coached wide receivers for a squad that ranked among the top 10 in the nation in passing yards in back-to-back years. Led by All-America wide receiver Rodrick Rumble, the Bengals averaged 351.6 passing yards per game in 2012 to rank fourth nationally.

Prior to joining Idaho State, Tucker served the 2010 season as Colorado's Offensive Technical Assistant under then-head coach Dan Hawkins. Tucker went to Colorado after spending the 2006-09 seasons as Lakewood (Calif.) High School's Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach.

Tucker spent four seasons in the NFL, signing as a free agent with the NY Giants in 1999 and later earning a spot on the team's practice squad in 2000. He was allocated to NFL Europe from the Giants in 2001 and played for the Amsterdam Admirals. He signed with the St. Louis Rams in 2002 and then suffered a career-ending leg injury.

A three-year letterman at Fresno State, Tucker started at wide receiver his last two seasons with the Bulldogs. Tucker earned his Bachelor of Science degree in criminology in 1999 from Fresno State, where he was a WAC Scholar-Athlete, member of the dean's list three times and earned President's List honors one time for having a 4.0 GPA.

Maryland 52, Howard 13

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - DJ Durkin enjoyed a lopsided victory in his debut as Maryland's coach, overseeing a dominant performance that carried the Terrapins past Howard 52-13 on Saturday.

Perry Hills went 14 for 19 for 126 yards, Trey Edmunds scored two first-quarter touchdowns and Maryland (1-0) allowed only 53 first-half yards in taking a 35-0 lead.

Durkin left his job as Michigan's defensive coordinator in December to guide a team that went 3-9 in 2015. Walking on the sideline in a black baseball cap, an untucked red polo shirt and long black pants, the 37-year-old coach seemed quite satisfied with the blowout.

His most vivid memory occurred long after the final whistle.

"In the locker room with the guys, singing the fight song," Durkin said. "The look on their faces, that's what you do it for. That's what it's all about."

Howard (0-1) won only one game last year while being outscored 408-169, so this game wasn't necessarily an indication of the Terrapins' improvement under Durkin. That answer may not come until Maryland begins Big Ten play next month.

Still, there were plenty of positives for the Terrapins against the neighboring Bison of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

Durkin got this job because of his defensive knowledge, and the Terrapins were exceptionally stingy. Howard went three-and-out on its first five possessions and didn't get into the end zone until Maryland's reserves entered in the fourth quarter.

Hills, in contrast, produced touchdowns on his first four drives. After finishing with a minus-18 turnover differential last year, the Terrapins did not give the ball away.

Freshman backup quarterback Tyrrell Pigrome entered in the third quarter. He threw for 60 yards, and ran for 53 yards and a TD.

Maryland also got a touchdown from its special teams: Edmunds took a blocked punt 13 yards into the end zone for a 21-0 lead.

Maryland 41, FIU 14

MIAMI (AP) — A combination of execution and fun has helped Maryland open the season with two convincing wins.

But the combination of Perry Hills to DJ Moore hasn't hurt either.

Hills threw for three touchdowns, two to Moore, to lead Maryland to a 41-14 win over Florida International on Friday night.

Hills completed 13-of-18 passes for 210 yards in three quarters. He connected with Moore for a 45-yard touchdown pass and Derrick Hayward for a 9-yard score in the second quarter to give Maryland a 31-7 advantage at halftime. Lorenzo Harrison scored on a 40-yard run for the Terrapins' fourth touchdown of the first half.

"We're doing an unbelievable job of executing," Hills said. "We all came out here and had a good time. That's the final point - to come out here and have fun."

Moore finished with six receptions and 147 yards for Maryland (2-0).

First-year Maryland head coach DJ Durkin rested Hills after his third touchdown pass — a 40-yard catch and run by Moore with 2:21 remaining in the third quarter.

"Just pleased with the way we came out and played," Durkin said. "I thought our guys prepared really well, traveled really well. That was a big thing for us coming and how we were going to go through it as a team.

"It's not easy getting road wins in college football. The way our guys responded, I'm really excited for them."

The Terrapins never trailed after taking a 10-0 lead on Adam Greene's 23-yard field andJermaine Carter, Jr.'s 15-yard interception return in the first quarter.

Carter's interception was the third interception return for FIU quarterback Alex McGough.

Alex Gardner rushed for 109 yards and scored on a four-yard run in the second quarter for the Panthers (0-2).

The Terrapins are now 5-0 in their all-time series against the Panthers.

Maryland 30, UCF 24 (2OT)

ORLANDO, Fla. -- Maryland freshman quarterback Tyrrell Pigrome replaced starter Perry Hills and on his only play of the game raced 24 yards for the game-winning score in a 30-24 double-overtime win for the Terrapins over UCF on Saturday night.

"I'm just so proud of our guys," head coach DJ Durkin said. "There were so many times when they had to dig deep. The offense had to pick up the defense and the defense had to pick up the offense, special teams and everything. There was a lot of swings (of momentum) in that game. I think more than anything, when you look at our team we held strong through all of that, to me that's a great sign for us. To me that's not been indicative of what we have done. So that's our first sign of adversity and how we were going to respond and we responded the right way."

UCF freshman quarterback McKenzie Milton, making his first career start, committed his sixth fumble of the night and fourth turnover to begin the second overtime, setting the stage for Pigrome's heroics.

The Knights tied the game early in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal byMatthew Wright with 12:04 remaining. Neither offense was able to score again in regulation.

Milton started in place of UCF senior Justin Holman, who was injured last week at Michigan.

After struggling early in the first half, Hills and the Maryland offense settled down and began to capitalize on big plays. Hills 51-yard completion to receiverTeldrick Morgan helped set up Adam Greene's 33-yard field as time expired in the second quarter to give the Terps a 10-7 edge at halftime.

The Knights held a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when Milton found running back Dontravious Wilson for a four-yard touchdown late in the second quarter. But Milton became erratic in the second quarter, committing two of his three first-half turnovers that allowed Maryland to get back into the game.

NOTE: The game marked just the second double overtime game in Maryland history. Maryland is 6-3 all-time in overtime games.

Maryland 50, Purdue 7

COLLEGE PARK (AP) — Ty Johnson ran for 204 yards on seven carries, and unbeaten Maryland used a strong defensive performance to breeze past Purdue 50-7 Saturday and provide first-year coach DJ Durkin a victory in his first Big Ten game.

The Terrapins (4-0, 1-0) scored four touchdowns and amassed 293 yards in taking a 29-0 halftime lead. Maryland finished with 400 yards rushing and outgained the Boilermakers 496-205 overall.

Purdue (2-2, 0-1) had no answer for the no-huddle offense that has scored a school-record 173 points over its first four games.

Taking over at Maryland after serving as Michigan's defensive coordinator in 2015, Durkin has the Terrapins operating at a high level on both sides of the ball.

Perry Hills threw two touchdown passes to Teldrick Morgan and ran for an 11-yard score. Johnson peeled off a 76-yard run and scored on carries of 8 and 48 yards, and Lorenzo Harrison chipped in with a 62-yard touchdown sprint.

The defense sacked David Blough six times. The Boilermakers were ranked second in the nation in third-down conversions (59 percent), but in this game they went 6 for 20.

It was 36-0 before Purdue finally scored, on a 4-yard touchdown pass from Blough to Cole Herdman with 13:30 remaining.

Even when the Terrapins made mistakes of their own, Purdue couldn't capitalize. Maryland hadn't committed a turnover all year until Hill threw an interception on the opening series. The Terrapins subsequently jumped offside on third down, but Purdue's J.D. Dellinger was wide right on a 35-yard field goal try.

Maryland promptly moved 80 yards in six plays, then fooled the Boilermakers with an unbalanced formation on the 2-point conversion.

On Purdue's next series, an illegal formation wiped out a successful third-down play and forced a punt. Not long after that, Harrison burst up the middle on his 62-yard run.

Penn State 38, Maryland 14

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. -- Freshman Lorenzo Harrison racked up 76 yards on just six carries, but Penn State beat Maryland 38-14 on Saturday.

Penn State quarterback Trace McSorley accounted for 233 total yards, throwing for 152 and rushing for 81 as the Nittany Lions (4-2, 2-1 Big Ten) had a season-high 524 total yards and snapped Maryland's five game win streak.

Penn State limited Maryland (4-1, 1-1) to 270 total yards, including 170 on the ground. The Terps came in averaging 300 rushing yards per game in victories over Howard, Florida International, Central Florida and Purdue.

Maryland was forced to play without veteran quarterback Perry Hills during the second half; Hills was injured on a second-quarter keeper deep in Penn State territory.

Penn State penalties and a Saquon Barkley fumble enabled the Terps to stay within striking distance until McSorley hooked up with DeAndre Thompkins on a 70-yard scoring pass late in the third quarter to make it 31-14. Freshman Miles Sanders added a 25-yard scoring run late in the game.

Minnesota 31, Maryland 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Maryland tried to rally late with a field goal and touchdown in the fourth quarter, but Minnesota got a late interception return for a touchdown to pull away for a 31-10 win at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Terps broke through with a 10-play, 57-yard scoring drive early in the fourth quarter that was capped off by a 32-yard field goal from Adam Greene. Freshman Tyrrell Pigrome rushed for 26 yards on the drive.

Minnesota answered back with a touchdown to take a 24-3 lead just a minute and a half later on a 70-yard touchdown run by Rodney Smith.

The Terps got into the end zone with 5:42 left in the fourth when Pigrome connected with D.J. Moore on an 11-yard scoring strike. The 10-play, 87-yard drive was highlighted by a 20-yard run by Ty Johnson and a 31-yard completion to Teldrick Morgan.

Maryland's defense forced the Gophers to punt, giving the Terps a chance to make it a one-score game late in the fourth. But Minnesota's Antoine Winfield Jr. sealed the game for the Gophers when he took a deflected pass back 82 yards with 1:08 to go, making it a 31-10 game.

Senior Levern Jacobs totaled a career-high 10 receptions for 82 yards. It marked the most catches for a Terp since Stefon Diggs had 10 receptions against Stanford on Dec. 30, 2014.

Senior defensive tackle Azubuike Ukandu recorded a career-high nine tackles in his first start of 2016.

GAME 7

Oct. 22, 2016

Maryland 28, Michigan State 17

COLLEGE PARK (AP) — Perry Hills threw a pair of touchdown passes in his return to the lineup and Maryland kept Michigan State winless in the Big Ten with 28-17 victory Saturday night.

Maryland (5-2, 2-2 Big Ten) also extended the Spartans' losing streak to five games, the longest skid under 10-year coach Mark Dantonio.

Ty Johnson led Maryland's dominant running attack with 115 yards on nine carries, while Lorenzo Harrison finished with 105 yards on 17 carries. The Terrapins amassed 447 total yards and bounced back from a pair of losses.

"That was a fun night for our guys," Maryland first-year coach DJ Durkin said. "The message for our guys all week long, in particular later in the week, yesterday and today, was to have fun, enjoy this. We knew it was going to be a great atmosphere and it was."

Michigan State redshirt freshman Brian Lewerke got his second consecutive start and went 11 for 24 with 156 yards with an interception. He also ran for 79 yards on 10 carries. LJ Scott had a big day on the ground for the Spartans finishing with 128 yards and a touchdown.

The Spartans (2-5, 0-4) took their first lead, 17-14 on a 34-yard field goal by Michael Geiger with 1:35 left in the third quarter. Johnson continued to find a holes and a 44-yard run put Maryland into Michigan State territory. Two plays later, the Terrapins retook the lead on a 2-yard run by Kenneth Goins Jr.

Hills put the game away with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Levern Jacobs with 3:23 left in the game. Hills, who suffered a shoulder injury Oct. 8 against Penn State and missed the previous game against Minnesota, was 21 of 27 for 200 yards Saturday.

Michigan State linebacker Riley Bullough was ejected with 4:39 left in the first quarter for targeting. That penalty helped Maryland extend a season-long 96-yard scoring drive, capped by Harrison's 8-yard run.

The Spartans went up-tempo and pulled to within 8-7 on a 48-yard touchdown run by Scott with 9:42 left in the second quarter. Hills reponded on the ensuing drive with a 36-yard pass to D.J. Moore but Adam Greene missed the PAT.

Indiana 42, Maryland 36

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. -- Sophomore Ty Johnson carried the ball 13 times for 142 yards and a touchdown, but Maryland fell 42-36 at Indiana Saturday.

The Hoosiers (4-4, 2/3 Big Ten) snapped a three-game losing streak and took a big step toward becoming bowl-eligible, something they haven't done in consecutive seasons since 1990 and 1991.

Maryland (5-3, 2-3) sure didn't make it easy in its attempt to earn a bowl-clinching victory. The Terrapins led 21-16 at halftime and 24-23 after a 32-yard field goal with 1:11 left in the third quarter.

But Indiana closed out the quarter with a 15-yard TD run from Mitchell Paigethen extended the lead to 35-24 on Natee's 2-yard plunge with 8:30 left to play.

The Terrapins closed to 35-30 when Perry Hills hurdled a defender for a 5-yard TD run, his second rushing score of the game, but the 2-point conversion pass failed and Maryland couldn't get any closer. Hills would finish the game with four touchdowns: two passing and two rushing.

Sophomore D.J. Moore finished with four catches and a game-high 81 reception yards in the process of extending his consecutive games with a catch streak to 16.

Moore's classmate Ty Johnson reached the 100-yard rushing plateau for the second consecutive game, finishing with 142 yards on a career-high 13 carries.

#2 Michigan 59, Maryland 3

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Second-ranked Michigan defeated the Maryland football team, 59-3, at Michigan Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The Wolverines (9-0, 6-0 Big Ten, No. 3 CFP) scored touchdowns on all five of their drives in the first half.

The Terrapins (5-4, 2-4) hit the right upright on a field goal, came up 1 yard short of a TD at the end of the first half and failed to convert a trio of fourth downs.

Wilton Speight completed 19 of 24 passes and had a 10-yard TD run for Michigan.

Maryland quarterback Perry Hills was knocked out of the game by Chase Winovich, who hit Hills and drove his left shoulder into the turf in the second quarter. Caleb Rowe replaced him and was 12 of 23 for 203 yards, helping Maryland throw for 289 total yards -- the most Michigan has given up this season.

Maryland's 367 yards of total offense is the second most put up against Michigan this season.

#19 Nebraska 28, Maryland 7

LINCOLN, Neb. — Terrell Newby ran for a career-high three touchdowns, Ryker Fyfe passed for 220 yards and a score filling in for injured starter Tommy Armstrong Jr., and No. 19 Nebraska defeated Maryland 28-7 on Saturday.

The Terrapins (5-6, 2-6 Big Ten) received a solid performance from sophomore D.J. Moore, who caught six balls for 124 yards, including a 92-yard score that tied for the second longest touchdown reception in Maryland history.

Fyfe prevailed over Max Bortenschlager in a battle of backup quarterbacks.

Fyfe made his second career start -- and first at home -- and was effective if not always pretty, throwing a mix of short and intermediate passes. He was 24 of 37, often dropping back deep and angling toward the sideline before throwing downfield, sometimes sidearm, sometimes off his back foot. He also hurt the Terps with a couple runs.

Bortenschlager, a freshman who entered the game having thrown four passes in one previous appearance, was 14 of 29 for 191 yards.

Jarrett Ross finished with a career-high 13 tackles, while Shane Cockerille notched two sacks.

GAME 12

Nov. 26, 2016

Maryland 31, Rutgers 13

COLLEGE PARK — A big day by Ty Johnson and big plays all around propelled Maryland to a 31-13 victory over Rutgers Saturday afternoon at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium.

The victory is the sixth of the season for the Terps (6-6, 3-6 Big Ten), making them bowl eligible in head coach DJ Durkin's first season in College Park.

Johnson led the way for the Terrapins rushing for 168 yards on 11 carries, including runs of 55 and 47 yards. Overall, eight Maryland rushers gained 318 yards on 45 carries; the team's third highest rushing total of the season.

Maryland opened the game with a 35-yard kick off return by DJ Moore, but the big plays were just beginning. It took the Terps just two plays, both runs by Kenneth Goins Jr., to go 55 yards to open up a 7-0 lead on the Scarlet Knights just 47 seconds into the game.

The Maryland defense forced Rutgers to punt on its first two possessions and the Terrapins' special teams made the Scarlet Knights pay on the second one. Michael Cintron got away a 48-yard punt to the waiting Teldrick Morgan, who took a hit right as he caught the ball. Morgan didn't go down, however, and proceeded to weave through a couple of Scarlet Knight tacklers and then just out-ran the rest of Rutgers' squad down the left sideline for an 83-yard return for a TD.

The big play was Maryland's best weapon on its next scoring drive. Perry Hills connected with Levern Jacobs on a 25-yard completion, which setup a 28-yard scoring run by Tyrrell Pigrome with 5:09 left in the first half.

The big plays continued on the Terrapins' ensuing drive as Ty Johnson ripped off a 55-yard run down the right sideline to the Rutgers' 15-yard line. However, the drive ended with a missed 34-yard field goal.

Maryland responded to a Rutgers score with another big play from Ty Johnson, who dashed 47 yards up the middle on the Terps' first play of their ensuing drive. Andrew Stefanelli capped off the 5-play, 75-yard drive with his a 1-yard plunge for his first career TD.

GAME 13

Dec. 26, 2016 - Quick Lane Bowl

Boston College 36, Maryland 30

DETROIT, Mich. — Sophomore running back Ty Johnson ran for 159 yards on 15 carries, but Boston College edged past the Maryland football team, 36-30, in the Quick Lane Bowl on Monday.

Johnson's big day propelled him past the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the season, becoming just the ninth Terp and first since Da'Rel Scott (2008) to reach the milestone. He also became just the eighth player in school history to post five 100-yard rushing performances in a single-season.

The Terrapins (6-7) had the ball at their 35-yard line with 1:48 left and trailing by six points, but didn't gain a yard before Harold Landry helped to finish them off with a possession-ending sack.

Boston College was ahead 29-13 at halftime after Patrick Towles threw a 49-yard TD pass to Michael Walker. On a reverse and pass from receiver Jeff Smith, the quarterback scored on a 20-yard TD catch in the second quarter.

The Terrapins made some big plays on offense, but four turnovers, sacks and poor field position proved to be costly. In the first half, Perry Hills threw an interception, lost a fumble and was sacked four times. On the Terrapins' first snap of the second half, Hills handed off to Johnson and the running back's fumble was recovered in the end zone by Boston College.

Maryland turned it around on their next drive, however, as Perry Hills found Teldrick Morgan wide open down the right sideline for a 63-yard touchdown pass. After forcing a BC 3-and-out, Hill again connected on a long ball - this time to Levern Jacobs for a 52-yard score which brought the Terps within nine points, 36-27.

With 4:02 left, the Terrapins got to the Boston College 1 with a chance to cut into their nine-point deficit and Hills lost a fumble after bobbling a snap. They got the ball back less than a minute later when Boston College's Jon Hilliman fumbled at his 6, and were forced to settle for a field goal.

Year-By-Year Results

Game-by-game results for every Maryland football season since 1892. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College from 1892-1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Big Ten Conference since 2014, Atlantic Coast Conference from 1953-2013, Southern Conference from 1921-51 (SC standings not available from 1921-32) and South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1920.

Home games were played at Byrd Field or "Old" Byrd Stadium, across the street from the campus on Baltimore Ave., from 1923-1947 and again in 1949. Home games in 1948 were played at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. Home games since 1950 have been played at Byrd Stadium on campus. The name "Byrd Stadium" was changed to "Maryland Stadium" before the 2016 season.

Home, road and neutral records are in parentheses (H, A, N). Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1936. From 1961-1967, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.
